

6

BATH DAILY TIMES, MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 19, 1917.

GOVERNOR MILLIKEN SIGNING THE SUFFRAGE RESOLVE ON FEB. 23
SURROUNDED BY LEADING SUFFRAGISTS AND MEMBERS OF HIS FAMILY

From Left to Right, Those in This Historic Group Are: Seated, Mrs. Henry W. Cobb, formerly of Bath; Mrs. Milliken, the Governor; Mrs. D. K. Livingston; Standing, Mrs. Florence B. Whitcomb, Hon. Charles A. Milliken, Father of the Governor; Mrs. Guy P. Gannett, Mrs. Arthur T. Ballentine and Mrs. W. R. Pattangall.

GOVERNOR CARL E. MILLIKEN, 1863, of Bath, Me., signed the suffrage resolve on Feb. 23, 1917, signed the resolve providing for the extension of the right of suffrage to women.

His private office at the State House, Bath, was the scene of the signing. The Governor was seated at his desk, surrounded by a group of suffragists and family members. The group included Mrs. Henry W. Cobb, formerly of Bath; Mrs. Milliken, the Governor; Mrs. D. K. Livingston; Standing, Mrs. Florence B. Whitcomb, Hon. Charles A. Milliken, Father of the Governor; Mrs. Guy P. Gannett, Mrs. Arthur T. Ballentine and Mrs. W. R. Pattangall.

The Governor was seated at his desk, surrounded by a group of suffragists and family members. The group included Mrs. Henry W. Cobb, formerly of Bath; Mrs. Milliken, the Governor; Mrs. D. K. Livingston; Standing, Mrs. Florence B. Whitcomb, Hon. Charles A. Milliken, Father of the Governor; Mrs. Guy P. Gannett, Mrs. Arthur T. Ballentine and Mrs. W. R. Pattangall.

The Governor was seated at his desk, surrounded by a group of suffragists and family members. The group included Mrs. Henry W. Cobb, formerly of Bath; Mrs. Milliken, the Governor; Mrs. D. K. Livingston; Standing, Mrs. Florence B. Whitcomb, Hon. Charles A. Milliken, Father of the Governor; Mrs. Guy P. Gannett, Mrs. Arthur T. Ballentine and Mrs. W. R. Pattangall.

STORY OF JOHN SEDGWICK HYDE

John Sedgwick Hyde, a prominent figure in the history of Bath, Maine, is the subject of this article. He was born in Bath, Maine, on March 19, 1847, and died on March 19, 1917. He was a member of the Maine State Bar Association and the Maine State Suffrage Association. He was also a member of the Bath Chamber of Commerce and the Bath Historical Society. He was a prominent figure in the history of Bath, Maine, and his story is a testament to the city's rich history.

John Sedgwick Hyde was born in Bath, Maine, on March 19, 1847. He was the son of John Sedgwick Hyde and Mary Ann Hyde. He was educated in Bath and attended the Maine State Bar Association. He was a member of the Maine State Suffrage Association and the Bath Chamber of Commerce. He was also a member of the Bath Historical Society. He was a prominent figure in the history of Bath, Maine, and his story is a testament to the city's rich history.

John Sedgwick Hyde was a prominent figure in the history of Bath, Maine. He was a member of the Maine State Bar Association and the Maine State Suffrage Association. He was also a member of the Bath Chamber of Commerce and the Bath Historical Society. He was a prominent figure in the history of Bath, Maine, and his story is a testament to the city's rich history.

SLEEPLESSNESS
Often goes with INDIGESTION

It is on a heavy night, especially when the bed is not of a hard day, and then go to bed after sitting quietly in a chair for a few hours, and sleep is sure to follow. If you can get the habit of taking a few drops of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, you will find that you are less likely to suffer from indigestion or nervousness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will prevent the indigestion and nervousness that so often go with sleeplessness. It will give you a good night's sleep, and you will find that you are less likely to suffer from indigestion or nervousness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will prevent the indigestion and nervousness that so often go with sleeplessness. It will give you a good night's sleep, and you will find that you are less likely to suffer from indigestion or nervousness.